Question 1	Should the government build a library or a park in your community? And why?
Question 2	Reading part	Listening part
	【学校通知】: The university is planning to build a new cafeteria near the library to help students get access to food easier and take a break to talk with friends.	【学生态度】: The man agrees with the plan. 1. It saves a lot of time for students to go to the cafeteria; 2. And it offers students a place to finish group projects, because discussion is not allowed in the library.
	Question: Explain the man's opinion and why he holds that opinion.
Question 3	Reading part	Listening part
	【名词解释】: Predator saturation: plants produce a mass of seeds to prevent their seeds from being eaten by animals.	【教授举例】: Bamboo produces tons of seeds every 120 years in different seasons to prevent their seeds from being eaten by big mammals. Besides this, bamboo usually grows very slow, so some years it might not grow. By saturating their seeds, bamboo can expand to many places, and therefore grow there in the future.
	Question: 用听力的例子来解释对这个概念的理解。
Question 4	【讲课要点】: Two ways of keeping eggs moisture 1. Frogs lay eggs in a water body. Since the shell is soft, water can enter the egg, so the eggs can stay moist until hatched. 2. Snakes usually live in dry areas such as desert. But there is a special construction, full of liquid, so the soft-shelled eggs can keep moisture.
